

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/9/2020 10:37:03 PM

First name: Emily

Last name: Qiu

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Tongass is a valuable national resource and contains some of the last surviving old-growth temperate rainforests in North America. The Tongass is home to many endangered species and serves as a valuable carbon sink. Many native tribes also rely on the Tongass. Allowing a timber sale in the Tongass will jeopardize resources that are valuable to these native tribes and further endanger listed species. I ask that this proposal be withdrawn.