

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/10/2020 7:38:32 PM

First name: Mary

Last name: Lyda

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Logging the Tongas is dangerous and unnecessary. The forest provides stability to the environment and creates a home for innumerable wildlife. There are other products that can be substituted for wood for construction and elsewhere. And we do not need to provide other countries with our natural resources. Please leave this forest stand as God intended. It's serving a purpose, many purposes, far more needed than the lumber from it's destruction.