

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/11/2020 3:45:21 AM

First name: Mark

Last name: Klett

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am opposed to this and any project that logs old growth forests in the Tongass. At this time, as the effects of climate change are increasingly evident, we need old growth forests as carbon sinks. Planting new trees will not make up for their loss. If we whittle away at these important forests now, what will stop us from taking even more in the future? There simply isn't enough left to lose and we need to think in the long term.