

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/11/2020 8:18:54 PM

First name: Rachel

Last name: Speed

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am totally against cutting down any trees in the Tongass national forest. Trees are the lungs of the planet and the Tongass is one of the largest old growth forests in the world.

Timber only contributes 1% to Southeast Alaska's economy, while the fishing and tourism industries contribute 26%. Stop making Southeast Alaskans' lives more difficult by threatening their true economic drivers.