

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/13/2020 3:50:49 PM

First name: Marc

Last name: Buccchieri

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As people with a vested interest in our own survival as part of the global ecosystem this mine is simply not an option. The Salmon River has remained the longest undammed River in the lower 48 and anything that threatens its watershed should be treated as a threat to our collective cultural inheritance. This is already stolen land and the people who intend to deface it should be required to pay for their crimes against the planet.