

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/14/2020 12:12:29 PM

First name: Jessie

Last name: Montgomery

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Creating a mine on the south fork of the salmon is a terrible and irresponsible decision. The salmon River is loved by many rafters, kayakers, fishers, and other individuals who use its pristine waters to connect with nature. The salmon also serves as a home to a great number of animals who benefit from its rich ecosystem. Please don't put another place we live in jeopardy just to make money. Just don't.