

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/15/2020 4:49:22 AM

First name: Colten

Last name: Elkin

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I do not believe that another mine in the Salmon River watershed is in the best interest of Idahoans. The Salmon is the last, best free-flowing river in the lower 48, and the lack of economic development in the watershed and its remote setting are inseparable from the charm of the river itself. While I love economic utilization of Idaho's vast natural resources, I'd prefer to see the Salmon River watershed remain as undeveloped as possible.