

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/16/2020 5:30:49 PM

First name: John

Last name: Swanson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Stibnite mine threatens some of the most cherished and prized rivers in Idaho and the entire USA. This mine puts these waterways and surrounding areas in danger. This land is wild and needs to stay that way. The Stibnite mine will likely have unintended consequences and the ecosystem in this area is already too fragile to withstand this. Say no to the Stibnite mine for the sake of your Idaho constituents and for the betterment of the greater central Idaho wilderness.