

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/17/2020 2:34:23 AM

First name: Elizabeth

Last name: Kittell

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am a citizen that lives downstream of the Stibnite Mine project. Our livelihood is dependent on the health of the Salmon River. The potential for groundwater contamination and the potential that groundwater contaminated by the proposed project will reach surface water is a very real issue for me, my business and all of the clients I bring to Idaho. They come here because it is clean and pure. I live here because it is clean and pure. The mine is a risk.