

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/20/2020 6:32:17 PM

First name: Alec

Last name: Jackson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Teton Canyon is an incredible wilderness asset, both for wildlife and experienced, skilled recreation. Opening the proposed zones to lift development would be extremely detrimental. Expanded development threatens critical areas for natural habitat and readily accessed public recreation. The resort has plenty of terrain at it's disposal, reducing public access to a key part of the local recreation scene only benefits the bottom line of the corporation. Conceding this land to private enterprise is not in the best interest of the community.