

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/25/2020 5:45:15 PM

First name: R.

Last name: Zierikzee

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I feel that electric bikes do not belong in any wilderness area. I find them to be disconcerting, they often go much faster than the stated speed limit, and cause stress and anxiety as I try to enjoy a relaxing walk in the forest. I know that wildlife feel stressed by the presence mechanical modes of transportation in their habitat and electric bikes moving at a higher rate of speed would be even more stressful.