

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/1/2020 6:28:56 PM

First name: Matthew

Last name: Larsen

Organization:

Title:

Comments: E bikes are not bicycles. They have a motor and are motor cycles and should be classified as such. Only in cases of disability should they be allowed on trails designated for bicycles. Their speed restrictor plates can be altered for higher speeds, as if 20mph wasn't already faster than anyone else is riding. Furthermore they allow unskilled riders to reach farther backcountry which could create safety issues in an emergency.