

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/2/2020 4:09:34 PM

First name: Devon

Last name: Johnston

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Per 77715.5-.6.

The objections from the mountain biking groups have greatly exaggerated ebikes. There is no need for separate trails. That is laughable. Many standard bikers are riding ebikes now because of their advantage getting up hills faster, which allows for more riding on the fun parts of the trails.

If you take the trails and split them up between us, It would be a great waste of time and money. But I suppose it would be answer to the problem. Curious how they will feel about that.