

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/7/2020 11:39:27 PM

First name: Camron

Last name: Newton

Organization:

Title:

Comments: E-bikes should be for those who need them. I understand the use for medical disability and age. For the purpose of "allowing less experienced riders" to access terrain is short sighted. A lot of the trails become dangerous as you get further into the backcountry. You need experience. It is ill advised to give the keys to a sports car to someone who just got their license.