

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/11/2020 5:49:17 PM

First name: Chris

Last name: Jackson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The granting of operating permits adjacent to the main public access corridor to the westside Tetons for the benefit of a corporate entity and the portion of the public able to afford a daily access fee approaching $100 is anything but an equitable apportionment of public resources and access. This in addition to concerns over water quality and impacts to wildlife, make this proposal appear to be a poorly thought out corporate grab of public resource