

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/20/2020 6:06:53 PM

First name: Frank

Last name: Bayr

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Forest Service has an obligation to sustain the health, diversity, and productivity of the nation's forests to meet the needs of current and future generations. Approval of the Stibnite Gold Project would be a gross violation of this obligation and a failure of the duties and obligations afforded the USFS by the federal government. Moreover, the devastating harm caused by such a profit driven decision would be irreparable. For this reason alone approval of the project should be withheld.