

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/21/2020 6:19:59 PM

First name: DEBRA

Last name: ATLAS

Organization:

Title:

Comments: E-bikes DO NOT belong in national forests. They pose a serious threat to both wildlife and human visitors. They conflict with trail users such as hikers, horseback riders and bicyclists and the possibility for injuries is very real. Allowing them into pristine public lands would be a serious hazard and should not be allowed.

I strongly and respectfully urge you to deny e-bikes into any of our national forests or federally protected public lands.

Thank you.