

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/21/2020 6:27:26 PM

First name: Patti

Last name: Williams

Organization:

Title:

Comments: People go to the forest to escape the sounds and dangers of the city or the urban areas in which we live. The allowance of eBikes into our protected National Forests.

The bikes are quiet which provides no notice to wildlife in their home or to humans who may be visiting. This is dangerous to the "rider" and the object they may encounter.

There are plenty of other places for people to ride their e"bike". It is NOT a bicycle as it is motorized.