

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/21/2020 6:58:16 PM

First name: Cynthia

Last name: Gefvert

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As a frequent hiker in our national parks, monuments, forests, and BLM land, I strongly disagree with any plan to allow e-bikes on the trails in these areas. These bikes have the ability to go up to 55mph. As such, they are not compatible with hikers or animals that live in the area. These areas are for spending time in the outdoors and appreciating nature. E-bikes just don't belong on these lands.