

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/21/2020 6:23:22 PM

First name: Shreeraj

Last name: Sutaria

Organization:

Title:

Comments: There is no reason to allow e-bikes or any other motorized vehicles in national forests. This would disturb the tranquility people seek when going to these forests as well disturb the natural environment, both flora and fauna.

This is a terrible idea that serves a small segment of users and businesses that seem to be pushing for their own interests at the expense of the majority of people who have different interests when going to a national forest.