

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/21/2020 11:19:17 PM

First name: Philippe

Last name: Monnet

Organization:

Title:

Comments: National forests trails should be free of noise (eBikes are noisy) and free of potential accidents caused by bikes (eBikes or not).

eBikes are heavy (due to the battery weight) and as such have greater momentum when ridden downhill, making them difficult to stop quickly or slow down enough when hikers or horses are encountered.

I am strongly opposed to allowing eBikes on trails.