Comments: There are so few places left where I feel I can get away from dogs, too many people, bikes and now the idea of an e-bike I find to be TOO MUCH!!!! Bikers have lots of places to go, so let them go to these places. It's absolutely crazy to open the door to e-bike. I have cell phone blabbers on trails, I have people on regular bikes that fly down the trail without warning and often coming close to doing me physical damage. Please, let's keep what is wild as wild as we can. We are losing too much in order to please those who really have no understanding as to the sacrifices people have made, what they fought for to protect these places that we call wild.

Thank you for this consideration.

Teresa
