

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/22/2020 5:16:06 AM

First name: Charles

Last name: Smith

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I oppose any use of e-bikes in Wilderness areas and even on public lands such as BLM and National Forest lands. Allowing easier access to our back country promotes a less caring attitude. When you have to earn your time in the back country by sweating to get there by walking in, you have a greater appreciation of the environment. You are more likely to take care of our precious planet and preserve what we have.