

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/22/2020 4:49:48 PM

First name: John

Last name: Altshuler

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As citizens of this country and of the world we need to recognize the value of forest our access to forests through the national park and monument program gives everybody access to these forests at world. allowing people to recreate with bikes and motor equipment and other things in national forests to kind of negate the whole idea of for its national forests and wilderness. I strongly oppose the addition of bike trails or motor trails or any economic enterprises in and around national parks national forests or public lands.