

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/22/2020 5:26:35 PM

First name: Susan

Last name: Terry

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am opposed to e-bike or other mechanized travel in national forest wilderness areas unless necessary to control forest fires or rescue people or animals in an emergency situation, and possibly electric wheelchairs. The noise and speed of these vehicles will not only startle and aggravate human hikers seeking quiet environments, but disturb wildlife, both fauna and flora. Wilderness was created to avoid these impacts so it is an oxymoron to allow machines in these areas. Thank you.