Comments: I live in Park City, UT. We get a great deal of tourists here. Most of these tourists are not serious mtn bikers. So they are not experienced in trail riding. This results in a great deal of injuries to both themselves and other trail riders. So we are collateral damage due to their inexperience.

Now you want to consider allowing these inexperienced eMTN bike riders on these trails. I feel sorry for our first-responders.

So In my opinion, I don't believe that eMTN bikes should be allowed on our trails. However, certain trails could be reclassified to allow them. But these should be limited.

Mountain biking is a sport...NOT a luxury!!!
