

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/23/2020 6:35:38 PM

First name: Jenny

Last name: Burden

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Electronic mountain bikes should be allowed an exception as they are not the same as motorized vehicles in a traditional sense. Electronic assist mountain bikes allow people with disabilities to enjoy trails. They do not create the same torque or trail damage issues that come along with other motorized vehicles. I say this as a person who rides both mountain bike and a motorized dirt bike because I can clearly see the difference in how some could be appropriate for certain trails and others not.