

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/25/2020 12:12:33 PM

First name: Robert

Last name: Ruskowski

Organization:

Title:

Comments: With the huge increase in popularity of e- bikes and the increasing demand for safe places to ride them, and increases in stress, anxiety and depression During this global pandemic it is in the best interest of the American people for you to exempt E-bikes from being categorized as motor vehicles and to allow them all to be used freely on bike trails/ paths throughout the country. We need to make access to nature and alternate transportation more accessible not less.