

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/25/2020 1:56:01 PM

First name: Michael

Last name: Twilley

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I have just began hiking and backpacking. This is a wonderful sport and getting back to nature is a wonderful thing. I feel the possibility of having to dodge electric bikes that can obtain speeds of 30 mph. Something that would take away from the outdoor experience. From the people I meet on the trail a e-bike is out of the price range of most folks. You might consider an individual waver for folks that are physically impaired that could use these..

Michael Twilley