

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/25/2020 4:40:08 PM

First name: Glenda

Last name: Barnes

Organization:

Title:

Comments: My time of walking on US Forest Service trails is a time of spiritual worship and contemplation. There is no place for motorized vehicles / bicycles as they disturb the quiet and peace that nature provides.

In addition, there is, over time, a trough that forms on the trails from bicycle tire use that makes walking difficult if not dangerous.

Please consider these points.