

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/25/2020 5:11:25 PM

First name: Isaac

Last name: Idoine

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I think electric bikes should be allowed on non motorized trails. As electric bikes are quiet, noise is one of the main environmental complaints against motorized vehicles. Also it is not much different than a bike in weight so there shouldn't be a significant difference for erosion impact. Most do not create tire spin just assisted power. It would expand the rider base of trails which would bring more people therefore adding more value to the trail systems and our public land.