

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/25/2020 10:01:00 PM

First name: Viri

Last name: Glennon

Organization:

Title:

Comments: No, absolutely don't even consider these on our national forests. The Forest Service has a hard time controlling the ATVs and UTVs from going into sensitive areas. These would just be dreadful in trying to keep out of closed motorized areas. I love my forests and hate seeing all the "new" paths created by ATVs and UTVs. I enjoy the silence of the forest and not hearing the roar of engines going by while I'm hiking remotely.