Comments: This would be very dangerous to allow anyone but equestrians on these trails. There are very few places that we can actually ride without disturbance. I've seen on other trails that allow bikes that they are not very courteous to equestrians and don't follow the rule about yielding to horses. Most have no idea how horses react when spooked. I've seen on these trails that allow both that litter and vandalism is worse. I beg to please don't allow this. Thank you for your time.
