

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/26/2020 4:35:30 PM

First name: Millie

Last name: LaFontaine

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Hiking on trails in National Forests in my own state of New Hampshire and throughout the country has been a joy to me over the decades. The thought of "sharing" the trail with a motorized vehicle is horrifying to me. The presence of e-bikes on back-country trails would degrade landscapes, threaten habitats, and mar the wilderness experience for us all. There are times and places for motorized vehicles. Hiking trails are never the right time or place.