

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/26/2020 6:46:45 PM

First name: Leslie

Last name: Freeman

Organization:

Title:

Comments: In the stream temperature analysis, it is important to include projections for increased temperatures due to climate change to fully gauge the impacts of predicted temperature change due to mining activity. Moreover, all action alternatives should mitigate for temperature for cold water species to result in no net increase in stream temperature to fully protect salmonid species in the analysis area.