

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/26/2020 7:10:40 PM

First name: william

Last name: bennett

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Bikes tend to speed down hill, while go slow up hill. Speed endangers hikers and equestrians. Bikes also tend to rut trails, this leads to wash outs. Though it might be nice to have more users on trails maintenance costs will go up. The forest service does minimal trail work and depend on back country horsemen to do this work. If trails become unsafe for horses who will maintain trails?