Comments: To Whom It May Concern:

I oppose the use of e-bikes on trails that are used for hikers, equestrian and foot peddled bicycles as they are dangerous. As an equestrian trail rider, peddle bicycles can be dangerous around a 1000 lb animal that gets spooked. An e-bike, whose speed well exceeds that of other traffic, with no sound, can be deadly for both the rider of the bike as well as the horseback riders. Please, I implore you to not allow them on forest trails.

Very Truly Yours,
Robin Frank-Rempel
