

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/26/2020 9:34:42 PM

First name: Susan

Last name: Hess

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Any motorized vehicles should not be allowed on our national trails, unless they are being used for rescue or maintaining trail. This poses a serious safety concern to equine riders who's mounts can be come uncontrollable or spook at the sight of a bike or motorized vehicle. Horses do not seem to frighten wildlife but I'm sure motorized vehicles would. Let's leave our national forests natural.