

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/27/2020 11:59:34 PM

First name: Paul

Last name: Mirocha

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The South Fork is an important habitat for Chinook salmon, Westslope cutthroat trout, bull trout and steelhead trout and has been designated a critical habitat for salmon. Although aquatic habitat in the South Fork drainage is considered good as a whole, some tributaries have been damaged by logging, mining and road-building activities, which has increased the sediment load in the river.

Please DO NOT ALLOW mining operations that will jeopardize this critical habitat.