

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/28/2020 1:27:31 AM

First name: Patricia

Last name: Feit

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Salmon River is a treasure of Idaho and should be protected from any degradation. It is far more valuable than the gold that might be mined. It is folly to believe that the river and its complex ecosystem can be restored if allowed to be violated. The residents of Idaho and the people who travel to Idaho to enjoy this pristine environment are enriched far more by the unspoiled Salmon than they will ever be by any extracted gold.