Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/28/2020 1:27:31 AM

First name: Patricia Last name: Feit Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Salmon River is a treasure of Idaho and should be protected from any degradation. It is far more valuable than the gold that might be mined. It is folly to believed that the river and it's complex ecosystem can be restored if allowed to be violated. The residents of Idaho and the people who travel to Idaho to enjoy this pristine environment are enriched far more by the unspoiled Salmon than they will ever be by any extracted gold.