

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/9/2021 4:25:24 PM

First name: Darin

Last name: Petty

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Zeroing in and otherwise practicing with a hunting rifle should be given consideration separate from other recreational shooting.

Hunting preparation is a more deliberate process and (seems to me) is less dangerous, less of a fire hazard, and produces less trash. People frequently have an urgent need to get this done in the fall, either because they didn't do it earlier, or because of a mishap - a banged scope or change of ammunition.