Comments: I strongly oppose any public lands being used by any for-profit enterprise for any purpose and any non-native animals being allowed to roam, live, or graze on the lands, regardless of fees paid. I vehemently oppose any person or business having rights that pass to children, grandchildren or other relatives in any manner whatsoever and any other way to extend lease or rental agreements that currently exist. The job of the Forest Service is to protect public lands, not to make money from them, and to protect wildlands and wildlife, not cater to ranchers and other "agriculture" interests whose purpose is merely to make a profit, usually by selling animals to be slaughtered. Cattle devastate the land and hinder its ability to sustain biodiversity and offset climate change.
