

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/20/2021 4:06:50 PM

First name: Kate

Last name: Severson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: National Forests have a lot of different types of recreational users. As a hiker, I strongly support setting up shooting ranges. It will improve my experience in National Forests. There will be less litter, less noise pollution, and I'll have less of a fear for my own and others' safety. National Forest visitors who want a place to shoot will still have a place to do so. This proposal makes a lot of sense from a public safety and environmental impact standpoint.