Comments: The mountain coaster at Sandia Peak sounds like a great idea and a wonderful way to increase tourism. My family has been interested in going to the one at Purgatory in Durango, CO but it's far and hasn't been open when we've gone to Durango. I would love to have one close to home that we could visit on a regular basis. Our state needs more things like this to keep people coming and what better way then to have the mountain coaster that could be open throughout the year!
