Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/24/2021 4:33:55 AM
First name: Alice
Last name: Goodman
Organization:
Title:
Comments: I am 100% AGAINST a cull of the Heber Herd. The Heber Wild Horse Herd population has remained stable since a 2005 Federal Court injunction prevented the Forest Service from capturing and removing free-roaming horses in the Sitgreaves National Forest. Although there has been no cull and no birth control used on the Heber Herd there is NO overpopulation of free-roaming horses in the Sitgreaves National Forest