

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/24/2021 4:33:55 AM

First name: Alice

Last name: Goodman

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am 100% AGAINST a cull of the Heber Herd. The Heber Wild Horse Herd population has remained stable since a 2005 Federal Court injunction prevented the Forest Service from capturing and removing free-roaming horses in the Sitgreaves National Forest. Although there has been no cull and no birth control used on the Heber Herd there is NO overpopulation of free-roaming horses in the Sitgreaves National Forest