Comments: First of all, this is just a bad idea. The Sandias are sacred to the Tiwa people that reside on this land. Were they even thought about or even asked for their opinions on this matter...probably not! The ski resort is bad enough, we do not need to be desecrating that mountain anymore. People get away from the city and hike in the Sandias to become one with nature, something we all need to do now and then. Putting a roller coaster up there will nullify everythig that mountain stands for. It is my opinion that any plans to build on that mountain should be rescinded....TN
