Comments: This is the most atrocious proposal I've ever encountered. This land is wilderness, not a theme park. It will attract yahoos rather than people who want to experience the magic of nature. It is a disgraceful perversion of the whole concept of the outdoors. People don't have to be entertained all the time by man-made activities; that's what Uncle Cliff's and the Coronado Mall and cell phones and Isotopes Park are for. Please, please reject this proposal in its entirety.
