

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/30/2021 10:14:42 PM

First name: Courtney

Last name: Kelwood

Organization:

Title:

Comments: This mountain is sacred to the Pueblo and I understand that it is part of the National Forest Service now, but the original people of this land should not have to see this sacred sight used further more to make a profit. Incoming tourist do not know the history of this mountain and it will eventually lead to desecration of the area. Not to mention the wildlife that lives in the mountains. I am pleading, leave the mountain as it is now.